

Triple Promotion, Triple Joy in BMS United

Piraeus, 14 June 2021

BMS United is pleased to announce the promotion of Dimitris Papadimitriou, Eleni Karlafti and George Makrakis to Sales Managers.

In their new role as Sales Managers, amongst other responsibilities, Dimitris, Eleni and George will support and motivate their teams, while ensuring that optimum growth and performance remain top priorities. They are bringing to the table their sales skills and extensive experience in the industry, a contagious enthusiasm, as well as a long history in BMS United.

“We are very lucky to have such strong and experienced professionals, each with more than 15 years in BMS United. Their performance has always been influential for BMS United. We are convinced they will be great ambassadors, ensuring the company values and culture will continue to grow and mature within the individual teams” said Antonis Xiros, General Director of BMS United.

These promotions came at a pivotal time to further enhance the development of the office and aim at keeping BMS United Piraeus among the top performing bunker trading offices globally. We wish to congratulate them on their promotion and assure them that the best is yet to come.

Covering over 2000 ports worldwide and boasting more than 500 active customers, BMS United is one of the world's leading trading houses in marine fuels and lubricants. The company has been operating globally since 1990, powered by a highly skilled team that operates simultaneously out of key port cities such as Buenos Aires, Hong Kong, Limassol, Piraeus and Vladivostok.
